BIOGRAPHY:

Born in Hollywood and raised in Montana, Matt is the third generation of a great show business family. His father, Buck Taylor, is known to audiences worldwide as "Newly O'Brien" from the long running "Gunsmoke" (1955) TV series. His mother, Judy Nugent, was a very successful actress in the 50s and 60s. His late grandfather Dub Taylor, was a veteran character actor and world renowned Vaudeville performer dating back to the 30's. Matt is the younger brother of assistant director Adam C. Taylor and older brother of actor/stuntman Cooper Taylor.

For the past 20 years, Matt has been one of the most sought after stuntmen in the film business. He has doubled some of the biggest stars in Hollywood from Brad Pitt to Kiefer Sutherland to Gary Sinise. In 2005, Matt won an Emmy for his Outstanding Stunt Coordination on the hit show "24". Since then, Matt has gone on to stunt coordinate feature films and has also directed second unit. Priding himself with a work ethic of honesty, integrity and professionalism, he continues the legacy of his family.
